Tucker Resigns As Bethune Prexy Payne Is South Ward Candidate

Payne Denounces Bernstein For Ward Conditions

Young Wilkins Name Approved By Senate Comm.

WASHINGTON — The Senate commerce Committee gave its unanimous approval last week to the nomination of Roger W. Wilkins to be one of the nation's top troubleshooters in race relations as director of the Community Relations Service.

The committee action cleared the way for the Senate to act on the nomination of Wilkins, who is the nephew of Roy Wilkins, executive director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. The service was established in communities work out racial the 1964 Civil Rights Act to help problems and carry out provisions of act. The agency was recently transferred from the Commerce Department to the Justice Department. Wilkins endorsed the shift.

Trugman To Run For Councilman From So. Ward

NEWARK — One of Newark's most colorful lawyers and civic leaders issued his statement of candidacy here last week for South Ward Councilman.

From my close and interested observation of the performance of the incumbent South Ward Councilman during his term of office, I am convinced that such representation has been woefully and tragically absent. I am, therefore, announcing my candidacy for that office.

I am happy to note that a goodly number of South Ward residents have announced their candidacies for that same office. I presume that during this campaign, all of these candidates

Muslims Wins Right Not To Salute Fag

TRENTON — The New Jersey State Supreme Court upheld last week the right of Muslims to refuse to pledge allegiance to the American flag.

In a 6-0 opinion, with one justice absent, the court stated that "the religion of Islam," professed by Black Muslims, enjoyed the exemption from the flag salute given to conscientious objectors by state and Federal law.

The court rejected the argument by the Board of Education of Elizabeth that Islam was based on politics and race rather than on religion.

The school board has suspended several Muslim students in February and March, 1963, when they refused to salute the flag with a pledge of allegiance.

About a month later, a group of parents filed a petition for reinstatement of their children. After a hearing, the State Department of Education ordered the school board to end the suspensions. The case was then taken to court.

The New Jersey high court, in its ruling last week, cited a decision of the United States Supreme Court that a school board requirement that all pupils salute the flag was unconstitutional.

Apartheid Cry Against Engelhard Selected For Brotherhood Award

NEW YORK — The American Committee on Africa in a surprising move here last week denounced Charles W. Engelhard Jr., as being unsuited for a brotherhood award to be given to him by the New Jersey Region, National Conference of Christians and Jews. Engelhard a Johnston Administration appointed to promote better race relations is one of the world's powerful industrialists.

George M. Houser, executive director of the 12-year-old citizens' committee contended in a letter to the New Jersey Region, National Conference of Christians and Jews:

"Charles W. Engelhard, more than any other single American, is the symbol of United States financial support for the pernicious system of apartheid in South Africa."

The American Committee on Africa claims 18,000 members throughout the nation in a program to aid Africans against colonial and racial oppression.

Its cochairmen are A. Phillip Randolph, Negro labor leader, and the Rev. Donald S. Harrington, of the Community

Church here. The Right Rev. James A. Pike, Protestant Episcopal Bishop of California, is vice chairman.

Mr. Houser's letter said that Mr. Engelhard, as chairman of Rand Mines, "controls nearly 15 per cent of South Africa gold production and about 20 per cent of uranium production."

He added that Mr. Engelhard was "a director of the Chamber of Mines, which sets wages and living and working conditions for Africans in the mining industry," noting that African gold miners averaged 70 cents a day while whites received a minimum of $7.62.

Mr. Houser argued that Mr. Engelhard had "a stake in apartheid," South Africa's policy of separating the races, and that he had been "mainly responsible, after the Sharpeville massacre in 1960, for arranging a $30-million loan to South Africa" to buoy "a faltering economy in which outside investors were losing confidence."

Mr. Engelhard, 48 years old, is a resident of Far Hills, N. J., and chairman of Engelhard Industries, Inc., of Newark.

Realtors Seat One Negro Another Quits Local Board

TRENTON — Mrs. Carolyn D. Martin of Princeton took her seat in the Trenton Country Club here last week thereby breaking a long tradition that barred Negroes from membership in the local board of realtors.

After an 11-year struggle and a law suit pressed by the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund Inc., Mrs. Martin last month was accepted as the first Negro member of the Trenton and Mercer County Board of Realtors.

A real estate broker since 1952, Mrs. Martin first applied for membership in the real estate board in 1954. Six times her applications were denied without reason before she took her case to the Legal Defense Fund. Fund lawyers filed suit in Federal Court last June charging the Real Estate Board with conspiracy to deny membership to Negroes and maintain all-white neighborhoods in restraint of interstate trade and commerce.

The 19th Amendment forbids discrimination on the basis of race by public bodies. The Board of Realtors performs official state functions and is thus subject to the 14th Amendment, Legal Defense Fund lawyers said.

While Mrs. Martin was enjoying her acceptance as a member of the former Lilly White Real Estate Board of Princeton and Camden County, William B. Tyree, the first Negro to win membership on the Cranford Board LARKIN TEASLEY was employed on October 14, 1963 as assistant actuary. A graduate of Fisk University, A. B. degree in Mathematics. He pursued graduate studies in Actuarial Science at Occidental College in Los Angeles.

WILLIAM J. KENNEDY, III, native of Durham, received B. S. Degree in Business administration from Virginia State College. Graduate work at Pennsylvania and New York Universities. In 1959 he was named assistant financial vice president and Controller and in 1965 elected to the Board of Directors.

crucial area of Federal litigation, in its jurisdiction.

The announcement was made Tuesday of last week in the yellow oval room of the white house where Mrs. Johnson was greeting a group of prominent women visitors. Mrs. Motley, 44, was escorted there by the President after the two had conferred in his office.

Mrs. Motley, the daughter of West Indian parents, was born in New Haven, Conn., where her father worked as a cook in Yale University's Skull and Bones Society. She was graduated from New York University and from Columbia University's Law School.

As an attorney for the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc., she carried the civil-rights battle to the courts. In 1964, she was elected to the New York State Senate, as a Democrat; and last November she was elected to a full four-year term as Manhattan Borough President with nominations from the Democratic, Republican and Liberal parties.

The career of Constance Baker Motley has been a steady parade of "firsts."

Mrs. Motley was the first Negro woman to sit in the State Senate, the first woman borough president and the first woman to hold membership on the Board of Estimate.

The list was extended Tuesday when President Johnson announced his intention to nominate Mrs. Motley to a vacancy on the United States District Court. She is the first Negro woman ever chosen for such a post.

Mrs. Motley's successor as borough president will be chosen by Manhattan's six Democratic and two Republican City Councilmen. The next borough president will serve until November when a special election will be held to fill out the balance of Mrs. Motley's term.

Kenneth Gibson Is Speaker At Freedom Dinner

NEWARK—Kenneth Gibson, replacing the snowbound Carl Stokes, told a United Freedom dinner last night, "the opening shot in a new urban era could well be triggered in Newark and its ring heard on the broad streets and in the ghetto alleys around the nation."

Some 250 guests braving seven inches of wind-swept snow, heard Gibson issue a call for the election of a new mayor of Newark. Gibson said he did not consider himself a substitute but rather a replacement for Stokes, the Negro candidate for mayor of Cleveland who lost by only 2,500 votes last year.

"If a qualified Negro would run for mayor of Newark this year, he would not come in second as Stokes did, he would win," Gibson said.

The Hotel Essex House audience heard two candidates for city councilman, Earl Harris in the South Ward and George C. Richardson in the Central Ward.

mands of civil rights groups called Richardson, supporting a new police director in Newark to replace Dominick Spina in lieu of a civilian police review board, "which our good mayor in his wisdom has refused."

Harris, departing from his prepared text, said he was "shocked" to read in Sunday's newspapers a proposal by Freeholder Albert Saldutti to loan $100,000 to the Essex County Park Commission to build a ski run in the South Mountain Reservation. Harris said the $100,000 could better be spent on the long-delayed two-year community college.

Gibson, whose name has been frequently mentioned as a possible mayoral candidate, is a vice president of the United Community Corporation and co-chairman of the BECC. Harris is a county freeholder, and Richardson is a former state assemblyman.

Darien Seeks Water

NEW HAVEN—A severe water shortage in Stamford has forced the town of Darien to seek another source for most of the 1.5-million gallons it uses daily.

Steven Gannon, manager of the Noroton Water Company in Darien, said last week that negotiations were under way to obtain up to a million gallons a day from the Bridgeport Hydraulic Company, which supplies Bridgeport, Westport.

The plan calls for using the Norwalk Water Department mains to pipe the water to Darien, Mr. Gannon said.

Police Exams Scheduled For March 8 And 30

NEWARK—An examination for patrolmen for the Newark Police Department, to be conducted by the New Jersey Civil Service Commission, will be held on March 8 at Barringer High School at 6 p.m. Medical and physical tests will be held on March 30 for those passing the written examination. Applications must be filed before February 18.

Police officials said last week that the Newark force still needed 100 additional men to complete its uniformed personnel. Starting salary for Newark police is $5951 and after five years reaches $7002. Applications are obtainable at the Police Academy, Police Headquarters or any of the five precincts.

Candidates between the ages of 21 and 30, standing 5.7, are eligible for recruitment. Other requirements are as high school diploma, or its equivalency, and a prescribed course of police training in a school accredited by the N. J. Police Training Commission. This mandatory police training act became effective last July 1.

Officials said that in order to aid those in preparation for the examination the department will hold primer candidate courses to be given free of charge beginning Tuesday evening at 7:30 at the Newark Police Academy.

1006 18th Avenue. These courses will be held twice a week, Tuesdays and Thursdays, between the hours of 7:30 and 9:30 p.m.

Dr. Flagg a veteran teacher takes his new assignment in stride as this his sixth different job in the last five years while maintaining his status as a member of the Newark school system.

The arrangement worked out by the Board of Education will have Flagg while on leave, continued to be carried as an active employee. Any such payments made by the Board toward Dr. Flagg's salary to enable him to retain his status as employee of the Newark school system, permitting pension credit to accumulate will be reimbursed by UCC.

Dr. Flagg's salary is $10,810 as supervisory assistant with the Newark Board of Education. It has not been determined what the UCC salary will be. It has been learned that UCC trustees are expected to approve the amount of $13,200 as starting pay for Flagg.

Dr. Flagg when he takes on his new duties will be in charge of all United Community Corporation dealing with education. The million project of the Newark Pre-School Council Inc. will be under his direction.

Since 1961 Dr. Flagg served as acting vice principal of West Kinney Junior High School, a Board of Education coordinator for the South Side human renewal project, a science teacher in Broadway Junior High School, director of the Newark's Neighborhood Youth Corps, and Junior High School Supervisory Assistant. He returned last September to the Newark School system after serving as head of the Youth Corps for a period of 10 months.

Dr. Flagg resides at 44 Stengel avenue and is a graduate of Barringer High School and Montclair State College. He received his Master's from Montclair and received his Doctor's Degree from Rutgers the State University. He has been a member of Newark Board of Education since 1952. He formerly taught in Englewood before coming to Newark. His wife is Dr. E. Alma Flagg principal of Hawkins Street School.

"DOC" WILSON, THE MAN WHO KNOWS

"YOU, BETTER BELIEVE IT"

You don't have to tell how you live each day;
You don't have to say if you work or play.

A tried true barometer serves in the place,

However you live, will show in your face.

The false, the deceit that you bear in your heart;

Will not stay inside where it first got its start,

For sinew and blood are a thin veil of lace,

What you wear in your heart you also wear in your face.

If your life is unselfish, if for others you live;

For not what you get, but how much you can give.

If you live close to God in His infinite grace,

You don't have to tell it, shows in your face.

Dear Doc Wilson —

I have been reading your column for over a year and you have done so much good for people in need that I wondered if God would give you the wisdom to help me and my family.

I have a bad back from an accident I had on the job. I have not been able to secure a regular job. Kind sir, if you would bless our home with the power of your goodness, we would be forever grateful.

ANSWER:
I will do everything I can do in the shortest amount of time. Sit tight.

1 * * *
Dear Doc Wilson —

I met a man who claims that he loves me, but to tell the truth, most men tell so many lies that I just don't know. He rented a room at my house for one week and stayed a month. It was a glorious month. One day just as I was leaving home for work, my sister dropped in. She is very attractive. After meeting him and having a drink with us she decided to stay for a while. I had to go to work, and I couldn't say to my sister, and I don't trust you, so I had to leave them together. I am certain that they hit it off together, from then on, because both became changed people from then on. A week later he disappeared. I don't mind telling you how lonesome I was, and still am. My mind almost went somewhere else. Yesterday he called and my heart jumped for joy. He said he wanted to come home, and the only reason he left was because he was in love with me, and wanted to cut clean from his wife before asking for my hand in marriage. I have been a very lonely woman since he left so naturally I wanted to see him. I told him to call me Sunday knowing this would give me time to seek your advice. Should I, or shouldn't I?

ANSWER:
You don't wait for my advice, the first thing you said was, "Come Home Bill Bailey". In your heart, you know he doesn't mean you any good. A thousand times or more you've heard the words; "There's no fool like an old fool". — You only got burnt before, this time you'll get burnt up. Still and all, regardless of what I say, you'll give in — I'm with you; I'd give "in", "out" and "up", "down and around".

"CUBA"

Cuban Lottery was established by a law enacted by the Cuban Congress July 7th, 1909. The first drawing took place September 9th, 1909. These drawings now take place every Saturday at 2 P.M.

The Lottery is operated by the government and all proceeds are turned over to the Havana Children's Foundling Asylum. In Cuba the Lottery is the big hope of the people, especially the poor.

There are two brass wire globes operated by electricity, containing the numbered balls and amount of the prizes. Orphan boys from the Children's Home are chosen to call of the numbers. No human hands touch the balls until the orphan gets it from the cut glass bowl.

Every fifteen minutes the globes are turned electrically in order to mix the balls thoroughly. At present there are eighteen hundred and thirty eight prizes.

All of the drawings are broadcast every Saturday and the official list is published by the government immediately after each drawing takes place.

FOOTNOTE:

In some manner three of these numbers find their way to the States. All are "one", or "two" figures except "one hundred". The last figure drawn is the main one, or "Mister Big".

Cuba is gaining great popularity in the United States, but it shouldn't be because the odds on winning are about 500 Thousand to (1).

Dear Doc Wilson —

I am burning the Graveyard Dust you sent me and the results are fine. I am also sprinkling the Graveyard Dirt around in the right places. This morning I grabbed ahold of an ice cold object that I quickly dropped as I turned cold with fear. I read in one issue where you said the dirt was so genuine that you could send the body along to prove it. Doc, did you send me a piece of the body?

ANSWER:

No — If I send a toe, I'll let you know.

I am back home in N.Y.C. to stay for a while, so all of those who have been calling for a personal sitting can now do so.

ROUNDUP

By JOCKO MAXWELL

JUST ROMBLIN' ROUND ...

From where we sit we would say that the Chicago Bulls the newest team in the National Basketball Association face a long tough road to success. They figure to write figures in red ink for at least four years. The franchise cost $1,600,000 an exorbitant figure. The Bulls have drawn low draft picks. Actually there are not enough top grade professional players today to stock a tenth team in the National Basketball Association... Despite the fact that the New York Knicks snapped that long losing streak and finally won a televised game they are not playing good basketball. There are too many cold spots, bad passes and lack of rebounding... then too Dick Barnett has developed cold hands... It'll be interesting to see whether Red Auerbach, the fine coach of the Boston Celtics can drive his team to another title. For the first time in five years the Celtics have stiff competition from the Cincinnati Royals and the Philadelphia 76ers. Both the Royals with their great star Oscar Robertson and the 76ers sparked by a rejuvenated Walt Chamberlain are vastly improved. Meanwhile the Celtics have displayed signs of sliding. Injuries to Satch Sanders, John Havlicek, Sam Jones have hurt. Bill Russell while playing good basketball has shown the wear and tear of a long career. Don't be surprised to see a new kingpin crowned in the National Basketball Association this season... We tab Zelmo Beaty the star center of the St. Louis Hawks an underrated performer. Beaty without fanfare scores in double figures, rebounds and passes well.

Ben Hawkins in Nutley

Ben Hawkins has had a fabulous scholastic and collegiate career in football and track. Hawkins scored 17 touchdowns in 1961 for a total of 102 points while making many touchdowns with runs of 40 yards or more. Some of his track records still in the Maroon Raider books.

"Hawkins carries a great pair of hands and is gifted with speed to burn," said Sandy Phillips, Ben's grid coach in his two years at Nutley.

The quiet unassuming Hawkins was instrumental in bringing victory to Arizona State after a bowl-bound Texas Western eleven led them, 20-0, at one point in the game Genny intercepted passes, played defensively through the game and scored the decisive touchdown on a 69-yard punt return for the final, 28-20, upset.

The Philadelphia Eagles made Hawkins their third draft choice and signed the Kierstead Avenue youngster to a 1966 Eagle contract with a substantial bonus.

"Benny appeared to be walking with both feet off the ground when he was with us at Nutley High," spoke Dave Broffman, NHS principal.

Ben Hawkins originally came to Nutley High School in his Junior year. Within ninety days of his admission to NHS, Hawkins easily could have won a most popular student contest.

Wherever Ben goes he carries with him the proud name of Nutley and the knowledge that citizens of our community are grateful to him for the fine publicity which his gridiron feats have permitted our Town to share with him.

Next winter Ben Hawkins will wear the uniform of the Philadelphia Eagles—a point in the life and times of Ben Hawkins which we know will mark the beginning of a long and successful professional football career.

Next season will be the last one Jimmy Brown, the Cleveland Browns' peerless fullback will play Brown is financially independent. He has lucrative business deals and will devote most of his team to furthering his ambitions to be a motion picture and television performer... Cazzie Russell, University of Michigan's All-American basketballer tops the Wolverines in scoring with 420 points in 14 games... We rate the sensational Kipchoge Keino of Kenya as a terrific middle distance runner. Keino has fine form amazing speed and a terrific finishing kick. He'll be invincible in outdoor competition. Maryland State's win over highly touted Southern University in the Millrose A. A. games was a real eye opener. Here's hoping that Atoy Wilson of Los Angeles will be the first Colored American to win an Olympic figure skating champion. 14-year old Wilson in time could develop to be in a class by himself—he's a natural. We have always thought the Milwaukee Braves moved to Atlanta to take advantage of the lucrative television and radio inducements. We feel that a major league team will be playing in Milwaukee in 1967.

We agree with the New York State Athletic Commission in not granting Ernie Terrell a boxing license because of previous world characters. You don't just snap off relations with such people like you'd cut an apple in half... Horace Clark could be the N. Y. Yankees' third sacker with Clete Boyer moving over to fill Tony Kubek's big shoes at shortstop...

65 Guerrillas Slain

SAIGON — South Vietnamese and South Korean troops opened a pre-dawn attack last week near Tuyhon, 240 miles north-east of Saigon.

They reported having killed 65 Vietcong guerrillas. They said also that they had captured four Vietcong suspects and seized 100 bags of rice, the main ration of the guerrillas.

The Vietcong struck in the Mekong Delta Province of Vinh-dinh, about 85 miles southwest of Saigon. The area had previously been quiet for some time.

A South Vietnamese regional force in the area suffered heavy losses in the attack, and the Vietcong were said to be in control of the area.

Sifford To Golf For Television In Shell Series

NEW YORK — Charles Sifford, first Negro to win a Professional Golfers' Association scheduled tournament, meets Australia's Bruce Devlin on television's golf program, "Shell's Wonderful World of Golf," this Saturday afternoon, February 5.

Sifford, a golf professional since 1947 and five-time winner of the National Negro Championship, is the first Negro to compete on television's oldest and most popular once-a-week golf show, to win its fifth season.

The pre-filmed Sifford-Devlin match, one of eleven in the 1966 Shell series, was played at the Royal Selangor Golf Club, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. It will be televised in full color over about 160 stations of the NBC network this Saturday, February 5.

An estimated 15 million people view the weekly matches between some of the finest American and foreign golfers on some of the world's most beautiful and demanding courses. The 1966 Shell series began on January 8 and will continue through March 10.

The winner of each match gets $7,000; the loser, $3,000. If the match ends in a tie each player gets $5,000.

Sifford, who will be 43 in June, became the first Negro to win a PGA scheduled tournament when he defeated Eric Monti in a sudden-death playoff of the 54-hole Long Beach Open in 1967.

A native of Charlotte, N. C., Sifford's goal is to win an official tour championship, something that has eluded him, several times by the narrowest of margins, during his 21 years on the tour.

The 5-7, 175-pound golfer finished second in the 1960 Orange County Open and the 1962 Canadian Open; tied for second in the 1964 St. Paul Open; placed third in the San Diego Open and fourth in the Western Open in 1963, and tied for third in three earlier events.

A World War II Army veteran, Sifford started his golf career as a ten-year-old caddy at the Carolinas Country Club in Charlotte. He and his wife, Rose, have a son, Charles Jr., 18.

Sifford's opponent on the Shell series, 28-year-old Bruce Devlin, last year suffered the frustration of finishing second four times by one shot.

The Royal Selangor Golf Club, site of the Sifford-Devlin match, is outside modern, multi-cultured Kuala Lumpur, about 350 miles northwest of Singapore. The game was brought East by Europeans who came to the Straits of Malacca for tin, rubber and tea.

The fairly flat, par-73, 6,606-yard course at Royal Selangor has a tropical complexion and a professional toughness.

The Sifford-Devlin match is the fifth in Shell's 1966 series. Matches are normally filmed in a day and a half, although several matches in the 1966 series were filmed in one day.

Founders' Day At V.A. Union

RICHMOND, Va.—Founders' Day observance will be held at Virginia Union University Friday, February 11. Dr. Herman H. Long, President of Talladega College in Alabama will deliver the Founder's Day address in Barco-Stevens Hall at 11:30 a.m. The exercises will mark the beginning of Union's second century of service to "Education and Religion." A record number of Alumni and friends are expected to attend the Convocation which is open to the public.

At 1 p.m. in the College Inn, Martin E. Gray Hall, a Founder's Day Luncheon and Rally will be held. Speakers for the day's luncheon and Rally will include Dr. Thomas H. Henderson, President of Union; Dr. W. H. Johnson of Philadelphia, National Alumni President; and Quail W. Moon, National Alumni Secretary.

The Founders' Day for the general public of the University is $15.00. In addition, the appeal to Alumni and friends, Dr. Henderson said:

"Since our last Founders' Day we have been working a Centennial Development Campaign for a greater Virginia Union and since October 22 construction has been going forward on two new buildings. Before Founders' Day this year, construction will be on two more, it is hoped, and we will have enough to use. Actually, not quite 'as usual' because our enrollment is larger than ever and of necessity, faculty salaries are higher than ever, though quite a bit below what they should be."

At Founders' Day, the Founders' Day Drive is to help meet the cost of current operations. Our 1,300 students simply cannot pay the total cost of the school and a half million dollars it takes to operate this year. A part of the difference between what they can pay and what they cost comes from church contributions, endowment income, and gifts.

Let us think now what it means to us and our country. "Build me a country, O Lord, who will be strong enough to know when it is weak and leave enough of itself when it is afraid; and one that will be proud and humble and gentle in victory."

Kentucky Rights Law Is Broader Than Fed. Act

NEW YORK — The passage last week of a civil rights bill by the Kentucky General Assembly is an event that reflects a significant break through in the patterns of race relations in the South.

Considering that it will outlast federal discrimination laws, employment and public accommodations (effective July 1), — a law in a southern or border state.

Fashion Is On Teenagers' Side

When it comes to high fashion clothes, teenagers refuse to take a back seat. Coats and suits for the young miss are highly fitted, collared and have a womanly, elegant look. Many a teenage girl is seen in a dress, wearing a young lady in new dress and suits with her in mind.

"This is a wonderful line for the teenager," says National Board of the Coat and Suit Industry. Slimming and flattering, the Shetland diagonal wool coat has a wide collar, set-in sleeves, interesting detail. Tone: 6-4. About $40.

An Editorial:

The Catholic Church And Mississippi

Feb. 2 is an important anniversary for the Negro Catholics in the South. On that day, 60 years ago, Mass was celebrated in a little shanty across from the railroad depot in Vicksburg, Miss. There was a small congregation present for the traditional Feb. 2 blessing of candles and to receive Holy Communion.

Much has happened in these six decades to make it possible for Bishop Harold Perry, S.V.D.,—to become the second American Negro elevated to the episcopacy. There have been many stepping stones, many "firsts" established by the Divine Word missionaries from that Vicksburg shanty to the Cathedral in New Orleans.

At conferences in Baltimore, the United States Catholic hierarchy had twice given special attention to the work which the Church should be doing to aid America's Negro population, but opposition in the South was so strong that it needed special missionary emphasis to get things moving.

The Holy Ghost Fathers and the Josephites had already started efforts in some places but the area was vast and the progress slow.

The Rev. Aloysius Heick, S.V.D., left Techny, Ill.,
for Merigold, Miss., in the summer of 1905. A white Catholic planter, Mr. Brenner, wanted to establish a mission chapel and industrial school for the many Negroes who worked and lived on his plantation. But prejudice and opposition from the white population was so forceful that the project was abandoned.

Bishop Thomas Heslin, of Natchez, suggested Vicksburg. The small Catholic, Negro community worked diligently to prepare the tiny chapel for the first mass.

Later four cabins were secured and on June 10, 1906, services were held in a little frame "church" on the corner of Jackson and North Second Streets. The Missionary Sisters of the Holy Spirit arrived that summer and a school was opened with 40 pupils.

Mother Katherine Drexel, of Philadelphia, who did so much to aid the Church efforts among the Negroes, visited the fledgling enterprise and made a donation for the erection of a new two-story brick school.

The Josephite Fathers had the only other Negro mission in Mississippi—in Natchez—so the Divine Word Missionaries prepared to branch out. In 1908 it was Jackson; two years later Meridian, and in 1913, Greenville. This was also to be a testing ground.

A year after they arrived, battling criticism and fierce opposition, the first Catholic high school for Negroes in Mississippi was opened. Named Sacred Heart, it sought to present an up-to-date curriculum, on a par with other schools of the day.

Then talk was started concerning a seminary especially for Negroes aspiring to the priesthood. The Rev.
James Wendel, S.V.D., the parish priest in Meridian, wrote articles and a book on the subject, talked about it zealously, and in 1919 the official green-light was granted by Bishop John E. Gunn, of Natchez.

Aided by the Catholic Board for Mission Work among the Colored, by Mother Drexel, some wealthy laymen from the North, and by the Negro faithful, the first seminary was opened in Greenville on Nov. 8, 1920, with the Rev.
Matthew Christian, S.V.D. as founder and first rector.

A two-story building housed classrooms, dining room and kitchen, and the attic of the parish school served as the dormitory. Eight were present for the first classes.
There were 25 on the roll two years later when it was deemed necessary to move the seminary from Greenville to a more Catholic locale. Ground was broken Sept. 20, 1922, for a new building in the Catholic town of Bay

Sharing ideas, experiences, joys is important. There are times, however, when people with whom we have shared our love, our time, and our interest are no longer a part of our life.
At such times we may need to give prayerful thought to reaching out for new friends.

As we pray to express the attracting love of God, we shall not fear that we cannot make new friends, establish ourself in new relationships. As we pray we shall not be fearful that we have nothing to give. Prayer do kind, thoughtful things, helps us see the ways we can tactful, needed words to speak.
Prayer helps us to know the Prayer helps us to avoid pushing and forcing. Prayer helps us to be willing to give our friendship without making demands.

If you are blessed with pleasant friendships and relationships, praise God that this area of your life is so rich. If you desire more friendships and relationships, praise God that you work with His law of love to make your life good.

We feel secure in making changes when we accept the truth that, while changes comes to everyone, there is a center of security that is unchanging—God, the principal of good. We feel secure in making changes when we take the attitude that changes is an opportunity to realize greater good.

Just how a change will benefit us and bring us greater good we need not know in advance or in detail. God, the principle of unchanging good, is our security. We go forth joyously and courageously to make the changes that need to be made.
We step out boldly knowing that every change in life is a change that will be productive and good.

was dedicated.

The major seminary was started in 1928 and on May 23, 1934, Bishop Richard O. Gerow, of Natchez, ordained the first four Negro priests at St. Augustine's. Ceremonies were held in a huge tent, because the chapel was much too small.

Since then St. Augustine's has produced 54 Negroes and 22 whites for ordination to the priesthood. Four other Negro priests in the Society of the Divine Word have been ordained elsewhere. More than 22 additional Negroes, who have chosen other religious communities or the disciple clergy, have received part of their seminary training at Bay St. Louis. This is a large percentage of the United States' current 161 Negro priests, whose ranks will be swelled with 15 more ordinations this year. St.
Augustine's also provides training for religious brothers.

Of the alumni of Bay St. Louis, three have been elevated to the episcopacy—Bishop Joseph Bowers, of Dominica, and now of Accra, Ghana; Bishop Carlos Lewis, of Panama, and Auxiliary Bishop of Panama, and Bishop Perry, Auxiliary Bishop of New Orleans.

From Mississippi the Divine Word missionary efforts spread to Louisiana, Arkansas and Texas where they presently have 25 missions, and in the future they will be in Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska, and Missouri.

Presbyterians Aids Family Of Colston

NEW YORK — The Rev. Coy C. Lee, who began work this week as the special representative of the United Presbyterian Board of National Missions in Wilcox County, Alabama, represented the agency at the funeral last Sunday of Mr. David Colston. Mr. Colston was shot and killed Jan. 23 near Camden, the county seat.

In a telegram sent to Mrs. Colston the day after her husband's death, the Board expressed its shock and sorrow and continuing concern for the family and the community.

Gifts totaling $500 have been sent to the Colston family from the Board and from the United Presbyterian Commission on Religion and Race.

Mrs. Colston teaches at Camden Academy, which United Presbyterians founded and operated for many years.

Mr. Lee, from Sallisaw, Oklahoma, is on a special three-month assignment to help the United Presbyterian Church expand its ministry in Wilcox County. Initial financing for the program comes from a $40,000 award made when the local school board last fall condemned church-owned buildings and property in Camden to make way for a new school building.

Mr. Lee is on loan to the Board of National Missions for the special assignment in Wilcox County. Since 1950 he has been field administrator for National Missions in the Synod of Oklahoma-Arkansas.

Atlanta Schools Support Bond In Election Fight

ATLANTA — Atlanta University including five other institutions of higher learning located here represented by seventy-five faculty and staff members announced that support here last week of Representative-elect Julian Bond in his efforts to be seated in the Georgia House of Representatives.

They said the House's refusal to seat Mr. Bond, a Negro, because of his views on United States involvement in Vietnam "was an action aimed at suppressing the views of the dissenter."

"As individuals we are of varying viewpoints with respect to the involvement of the United States in Vietnam," the faculty and staff members added. "However, we affirm our conviction that the ouster of Mr. Bond is a flagrant violation of the democratic process and of the right of the people to be represented in the Legislature."

Julian Bond said today that he believes the majority of his Atlanta constituents agree with his position.

The 26-year-old pacifist, who has brought suit in Federal Court seeking to overthrow the Legislature's action, met with a group of Congressmen and legislative aides in the House Office Building.

Mr. Bond said he opposed the Vietnam war because he objects to all wars in general and this one in particular.

The other Atlanta institutions supporting Bond were: Morehouse College, Spelman College, Morris Brown College, Clark College and the Interdenominational Theological Center. All of the institutions are situated in Mr. Bond's legislative district in Atlanta.

Military Ruler Seeks Broad Nigeria Reforms

LAGOS, Nigeria — Maj. Gen. Johnson T.U. Aguiyi-Ironsi's in his first declaration since establishing a military government following the overthrow of the federal government two weeks ago by young army officers, pointed to sweeping reforms and the eliminating of corruption and tribalism.

Addressing the nation by radio, the general pledged that the new military regime would stamp out corruption "with ruthless efficiency."

The Prime Minister, Sir Abubakar Tafawa Balewa, who was killed in the coup, was considered an honest statesman.

In taking power the night of Jan. 16, General Aguiyi-Ironsi abolished the offices of President and Prime Minister and all Ministerial positions.

Speaking in a firm and steady voice, the 43-year-old general also proclaimed:

Official tours abroad "will be drastically curtailed."

Prestige projects "such as fanciful office buildings and palatial residences" will be halted.

Houses of former Ministers and corporation officials will be turned over to the public interest.

Calling for "urgent national reconstruction," General Aguiyi-Ironsi proscribed all political parties from flying flags and made it a crime to shout political slogans.

Without going into details, he also promised to initiate low-income housing programs.

He held a brief audience with the foreign diplomatic corps in which he reaffirmed Nigeria's policy of non-alignment and support for the United Nations, the British Commonwealth and the Organization of African Unity.

To most Western observers, his speech seemed moderate in tone and appeared to offer in broad outline the promise of long overdue reforms.

Suspect Freed on Bond

TUSKEGEE, Ala. — A white man accused of killing a Negro college student was free on bond last week after a week in jail.

Meanwhile, about two dozen students at Tuskegee Institute assembled on the courthouse lawn to resume demonstrations touched off by the killing Jan. 3 of their fellow student, Samuel Young Jr.

The county authorities disclosed that Marvin Segrest, 67, of nearby Shoter, Ala., has been released on $20,000 bond on a murder charge filed by the slain student's father. The bond was posted by friends last night.

New Jersey's outstanding Negro Real Estate Brokers became concerned over the plight of Negroes in the mortgage field and alerted his two brothers to join with him in organizing a Negro owned financial institution that would serve the mortgage needs of the Negroes in Essex County and the state.

In 1959 the Tucker brothers spearheaded by Frank launched a campaign to build an all Negro own building and loan association. The same year The Tucker Brothers called a meeting which included, Dr. Jonathan Gibbs of Jersey City; Harold Hopper, E. Orange; Monty Irvin of baseball fame, Orange; Cassell Woods, Real Estate Broker, Plainfield; Attorney William Raines, Englewood and The Rev. Eustace Blake, minister of St. James, A.M.E. church, Newark. The group made application to the N.J. Department of Banking and Insurance for a charter to organize a Building and Loan Association.

Mr. Frank Tucker was instrumental in obtaining the greater share of the $1,000,000 in subscription pledges required by the state banking department.

Bethune Savings and Loan Association opened its doors to the public at 3 Belmont avenue, Newark in 1963 and was insured as of June 1964 by the Federal Home Loan Bank. The institution was capitalized at $900,000. Since the doors were opened in 1963 under the direction of Mr. Tucker the all Negro financial institution established a number of financial growth records for the Newark area. There has been an increase of approximately $100,000 a month since the opening.

Tucker was elected by the Board of Directors as its first president in 1964.

He announced at the annual meeting of depositors held January 17, at Masonic Hall, 15 Belmont avenue that he would not seek reelection as president.

Present assets of Bethune are Two and a quarter million. It has an investment portfolio of over 2,000,000.

It was learned that the newly elected president, Dr. Gibbs will not serve as a Bethune based full time president but that Lewis F. Nielson has been named managing officer of the institution.

Mr. Tucker remains a member of the Board. Others who were elected were: Albert B. Cook, secretary, Montclair; Dr. Paul S. Freeman, treasurer, Jersey City; Dr. Josephus C. Carr, board chairman, Newark; Dr. Clifford Davis, Teaneck and Rev. Eustace Blake, vice chairman, East Orange.

WOMEN TOP THE NATION IN NEWS INTEREST AND ACHIEVEMENT

The females of the nation are being brought to the fore and their gifts and talents used in places never employed before. The Chief of the nation has singled out a Negro woman who has achieved more firsts in her short 44 years than any we have on register.

Constance Baker Motley has been chosen to fill a vacancy on the Federal District Court in New York becoming the first Negro woman ever to sit on the Federal Bench. The first New York State Senator and the first Negro female Manhattan Borough President, Mrs. Motley will take over the coveted Southern District of New York when she is confirmed by the Senate. She was proposed over a year ago by Senator Robert Kennedy the late President Kennedy's brother, for one of two vacancies.

The former NAACP legislator will take a cut of some $5,000 to receive $30,000 a year at the new post.

The Women's Editor of this publication has followed Constance Motley since the days of both at Columbia University when she was a student at the law school and at subsequent intervals.

CONSTANCE MOTLEY A DAUGHTER ELK

Mrs. Nettie B. Smith, Grand Daughter Ruler of Elkdom, recognized Mrs. Motley's qualifications some time ago as she has other qualified civil servants of the nation. Mrs. Motley is an honorary Daughter Elk, as is Ann Arnold Hedgeman and other women of distinction raising their voices in the cause of democracy and ready and prepared when they are called to the White House or elsewhere by virtue of merit.

Mrs. Motley's nomination follows fast on that of Dr. Robert Weaver, the first Negro Cabinet member, both staunch NAACP executives and who this writer has covered from stem to stern all over the country where the well oiled voices and heels have tread.

Educator Florence Henderson, Regional Director of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History, indicated a large group of notables to be honored at the 1966 Annual Breakfast to be held at Waldorf-Astoria Starlight Roof come February 20 Sunday 9:30 in the morning.

Dr. Kenneth B. Clark, Miss Marian Anderson (noted diva and honorary Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority member), Amsterdam James L. Hicks, Curator Schomburg Collection Jean Hutson, former Assistant to the Mayor Joyce P. Austin are among the awardees to be honored.

Jersey and the nation's Dr. Samuel Proctor, two-time college president, Peace Corp and governmental employee is the principal speaker. Dr. Proctor is the Director of the Northeast Anti-Poverty program and an ordained minister. Graham Crackers has visited both Virginia Union in Richmond and A & T College in Greensboro, N.C., where the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History has made signal contributions.

Vinie Burrows, eminent actress, comes to Newark Sunday to perform on the same platform with the first Negro Mayor of Springfield, Ohio, at Hotel Essex. Jackson is the president and Mrs. Anna Jennings, mother, Mrs. Beatrice Wright Yates, social worker; Miss Majorie Coster, health and welfare; Mrs. Mary W. McBrown, business; and Mrs. Doris I. Phillips, community service.

properly instruct our children because of the severe overcrowding.

"Many other major problems exist in our Ward such as a large number of substandard dwellings for which tenants must pay excessive rents to absentee landlords.

"The incumbent councilman has virtually ignored these problems and has not provided the leadership on the Council to combat these conditions. Instead, it seems that he has attempted to use his office to destroy every constructive effort being made by well-meaning, decent citizens to make Newark a better place for all segments of the population."

Payne stated that Councilman Bernstein "has made vicious attacks against the City's anti-poverty program, which is designed to improve the lives of all citizens of Newark." Payne added, "The councilman apparently has a low regard for people who receive public assistance. Councilman Bernstein recently stated 'welfare recipients are happy to be on the rolls.' Despite his attitude toward his constituents, the Councilman has even exploited our children through the use of his bus for political purposes. And he brazenly boast of giving free food to the poor."

The candidate charged that Bernstein has also attacked the Mayor's Human Rights Commission and made negative comments about its director, "even though the Commission is working diligently to develop better understanding and harmonious relations between the various groups in Newark."

"In our opinion, Bernstein's presence on the Municipal Council has seriously hampered the forward progress of the South Ward and the entire city. We can no longer afford the luxury of having him as a member of the city's governing body."

Payne stated that the basic problems of substandard housing, excessive rents, high taxes, inadequate education cannot be solved by "free bus rides and charity food baskets. The councilman is living in a by-gone era when his type of politics was the order of the day. But this is 1966 and the citizens of the South Ward need and deserve concerted efforts by their councilman in order to solve these problems."

"I am asking all of the people of our integrated community to unite and elect me as their councilman. I believe my many years of community work has given me a deep understanding of our problems and I would like to serve the entire Ward as its representative to the City Council," said Payne.

"Our young people must be served! In addition to working for improved school conditions, we will fight to have a swimming pool constructed in the South Ward. Our ward is the only one in the entire city that does not have a public pool, even though we have a greater number of children than any other ward."

The candidate also pledged to "use every means to try to keep Route 78 out of our area. Unfortunately, Mr. Bernstein has merely played 'lip service' to this problem and has used it solely as a political football. With the solid support of our constituents, we may be successful in our efforts."

"We must develop positive programs to help solve the problems of our ward. I am seeking election to the Council so that we can all work together as a team and begin to move forward again," stated the candidate.

Payne has long been active in community efforts to improve conditions in the South Ward and throughout Newark. He is President of the Board of Directors of the Leaguers, Inc., an educational and cultural center for youth. He is a trustee of the United Community Corporation, an executive committee member of the Business and Industrial Coordinating Council, the Newark Committee for Better Public Schools, and the Newark Citizens for Community Action.

Also a director of Prospect House, a psychiatric rehabilitation center, the Governor's Advisory Committee for the Office of Economic Opportunity, and a member of the Editorial Board Advisory Board of the Newark Commerce Magazine.

Payne is the former National Youth Chairman of the NAACP, former member of the executive board of the Newark Branch, NAACP, and the organizer and past president of the Newark Rutgers chapter, NAACP. He is also a past member of the Board of the South Newark Boys Club, the South Newark Ambulance Squad, and State Director of the South Newark Jaycees. He is also past vice president of the Clinton Hill Neighborhood Council.

RIGHTS GROUP SEEKS END OF JURY BIAS

WASHINGTON — The Leadership Conference on Civil Rights has drafted a bill that goes beyond President Johnson's proposal for ending racial discrimination on juries against attacking or intimidating civil rights workers.

This provision will be introduced soon as a bipartisan measure. Efforts are being made in the meantime to have its major provisions incorporated into the Administration legislation that will go to Congress later.

The leadership conference represents about 100 organizations in civil rights, religion, labor and civic affairs, and has played a leading role in the enactment of civil rights legislation in the past.

The conference bill would provide for greater representation of Negroes and other groups on both local and Federal juries. Persons called for Federal Jury duty would be chosen from a random list of all eligible adults in a judicial district. Similar standards would be imposed in state or local courts where there was proof of discrimination.

Other provisions of the conference proposal would do the following:

Remove a broad range of cases from state to Federal courts.

Strengthen conspiracy statutes against harming Negroes and civil rights workers.

Permit court injunctions against anyone about to deprive Negroes or civil rights workers of a constitutional right.

Make states or counties financially liable for acts committed by their police against civil rights workers.

Permit removal of police officials for gross violations of civil rights.

Give Federal marshals and the Federal Bureau of Investigation greater power to make on the spot arrests during racial unrest.

President Johnson said in his State of the Union Message on Jan. 13 that he would submit legislation to "establish unavoidable requirements for non-discriminatory jury selection in Federal and state courts" and "to strengthen authority of Federal courts to try those who murder, attack, or intimidate either civil rights workers or others exercising their constitutional rights — and to increase penalties to a level equal to the nature of the crime."

In announcing his appointment as Postmaster General, President Johnson described O'Brien as "a wise counselor, gifted strategist, efficient manager, and warm humanitarian."

O'Brien, 48, is a native of Springfield, Massachusetts, and a veteran of World War II. He is married to the former Elva Lena Brewster of Springfield, Massachusetts. They have one son, Lawrence Francis, III. O'Brien is a graduate of Northeastern University Law School.
